DATE PREPARED 23 January 1951

1. Between 6 and 8 December 1950, the Artillerie Kaserne on Freienwaldstrasse, Oberswalde (N 53/V 08), was occupied by approximately 2,000 troops or about half of its capacity. On 6 December a military band was playing in the barracks yard, with 150 to 200 soldiers assembled in small groups. [redacted] a detachment of two officers and 29 EM wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying submachine guns left the billeting area through the eastern gate, marching to the drill field 1 km north of the installation. Another detachment of one officer and 16 EM, who wore red-bordered black epaulets and carried rifles and practice targets, left for the drill field through the western gate.

3. On 7 December, a T-34 tank left a garage in the Schuetzen Kaserne on Bernauer Heerstrasse and moved to a lock smith shop on Tramperchaussee. No tanks had been seen in the installation for four weeks. Basic drill of about 70 EM, obviously recruits, was observed on the drill field. About 80 EM, some of them carrying copybooks, left the mess building. Martial music was heard from that section of the drill field which was blocked to view. Three units totaling four officers and 80 to 90 EM with red-bordered black epaulets marched to the rifle range, carrying submachine guns, carbines, and practice targets.

5. The Bischospalteci depot contained 12 one-story brick buildings varying in length from 10 to 20 meters. It included a shoemaker and a tailor shop and allegedly supplied PXs and commissaries in and near Zberswalde. Most of the depot personnel were Germans. Four Soviet officers and four Soviet civilians who were observed there were apparently assigned to the depot.
